Yellow warning
Rain

Between 12:00 Fri 21 Feb 2020 and
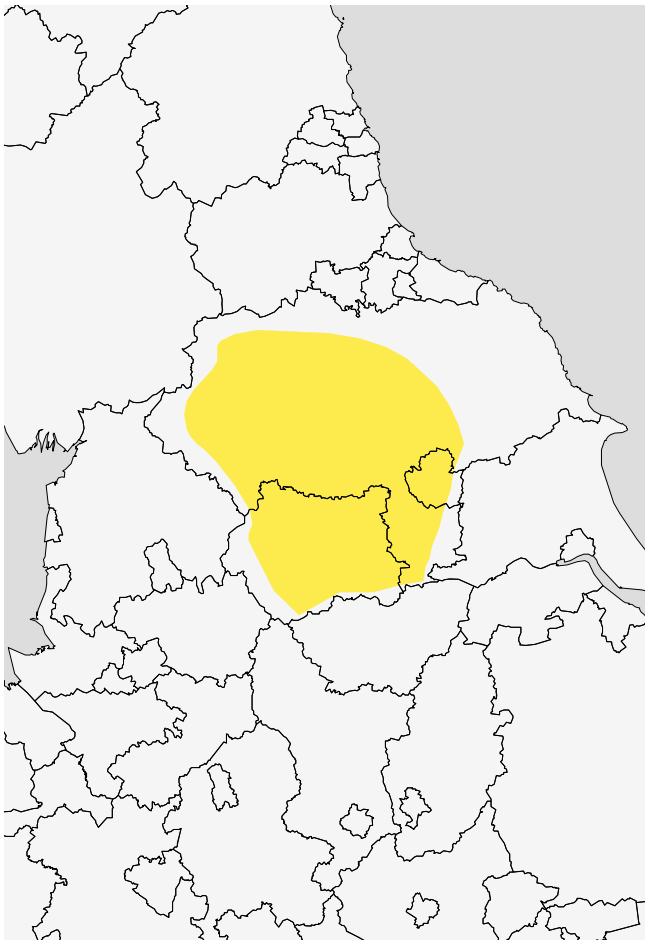
06:00 Sat 22 Feb 2020



Persistent rain, heavy over hills, may lead to flooding and travel disruption during Friday and Friday night.

What to expect

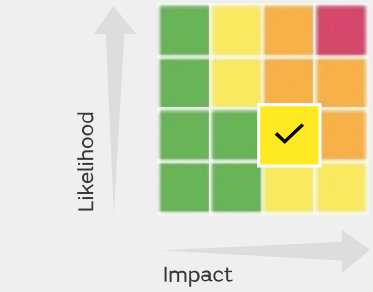
- Where flooding occurs, delays or cancellations to train and bus services are possible.
- Fast flowing or deep floodwater is possible, causing a danger to life
- Homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Some communities may be cut off by flooded roads

Further details

Further rain is expected across northern England today. Rain will become persistent and occasionally heavy over parts of the Pennines before clearing early on Saturday. 20-30 mm is likely to fall widely over higher ground with the potential for 60-80 mm in a few places. Given the recent wet conditions this brings a chance of flooding.

Reason for update

Updated to increase likelihood of seeing medium impacts and minor tweak to southeastern boundary.



Low likelihood of medium impacts
